Dear Henry,
 (53)
 I hope you
 continue like you are,
 because you are really a wonderful "kid". And you are going to be very popular in the future. You really don't let it go with me and please, because I don't want to kick. But head, I don't want that to happen.
 to your head, I don't want three years.
 run you and see you always be.
 see you always be.
 see you always be.

Foreword

In this thirty-third edition of the Echo the members of the Class of 1950 have attempted to present a pictorial account of their four years in high school, carrying out the theme of Stars wherever possible. In the years to come may the book serve as a pleasant reminder of happy and purposeful days spent in the Chambersburg High School.

Best wishes to

Dedication

To Mr. Ralph I. Shockey, our principal, who has given unselfishly of his time and service in order to prepare the youth of the Chambersburg High School for higher learning and for a useful role in our modern society, we, the Class of 1950, respectfully dedicate this thirty-third edition of the yearbook.

Ken

I am not writing this note because I want to but because I have to. I hope you have all the success in the world but I don't mean it. Remember all the good times we had together with Nixon and the gang, the Donut hole, plus all the times
we went to Gettysburg with Ken Lee, Boney and Ester. I am looking forward to many more times in the future. How do you like the 5:00 shoulder on Shocks. When you go out with any girls you ride on the running board because you steal all the girls right out from under my nose. Well I hope you make out good in track. If you take all the records in shot Put, and Discus under your hands get bigger, not only for the Discus but for other reasons.

Class Song

Words by WILLIAM BARKLOW

Music by WILLIAM TRAXLER, RONALD MCCLEARY

We, the Class of 1950,
Ceasing never, always thrifty,
Will forever, onward fight
For our colors, the Red and White.

When we leave dear C. H. S.
May we always do our best,
Strive to do what is the right,
Always faithful to the Red and White!

CHORUS:

1950! 1950! 1950! So
Hitch your wagon to a star,
Whether it be near or far,
If in life this is your aim,
Later it may bring you fame.

Class Song

Words and Music by FAITH C. WENGER

We are the Class of Fifty-two,
As we sail on the bright sea of blue;
Fearless sailors all so gay are we,
Sailing merrily on the sea.

Our sails are flying red and white,
And our Captain is a man of might.
May we always strive to do our best,
To uphold good old C. H. S.

CHORUS:

Sail on! Sail on! Class of Fifty-two,
As we press on to success so true;
We will triumph over every fall,
And be the greatest class of all.

Stimulating interest and appreciation of music is the ultimate aim of the Chambersburg High School Band. Under the direction of Mr. Irvin G. Valentine its members interpret and illumine the themes of the best composers. With these compositions the band presents programs of a very high quality.

The aim of this organization is to train the individual in ensemble singing. All music is chosen with careful consideration for the development and appreciation of the finest in musical art. Both classical and modern compositions are studied with complete thoroughness as to interpretation, expression, phrasing, and enunciation. The club membership is limited to ninety voices selected from the upper classes. Rehearsals are held daily during the fourth period. In addition to presenting a Christmas concert and a spring concert, this organization appears in many community-sponsored programs throughout the school year.

From the Glee Club is chosen The Choristers, a group composed of twenty-four select voices. This organization provides musical entertainment for school assemblies, service clubs, churches, and radio broadcasts.

The Freshman Chorus is a group of freshman boys and girls who are interested in furthering their knowledge of vocal music and in attaining efficiency in part singing. The chorus presents one major activity during the year. Members who do outstanding work may audition for the Glee Club.

The Visual Education Club is very active in giving service to teachers and students in every department of the high school. Its expanding program necessitates the utmost loyalty, cooperation, and time from each carefully chosen member.

The film library has been greatly enlarged and now contains one hundred motion picture films and four hundred film slides. A great deal of audio-visual equipment has been added. All of this, plus the projection of more than three hundred motion picture films, which are rented from film rental libraries, attest to the annual activity and service of this club.

Tennis Club

The objective of this club is to develop a spirit of team play. The club was organized into a competitive sport a few years ago and is currently attempting to build a schedule of teams representing schools of this district. During the season of 1949 such teams as Hanover and Scotland were carded on a home and away basis. The members of the team hope to develop the sport into a five-man club with the possibility of earning a "C" upon the completion of certain qualifications.

The "C" Club

The "C" Club is an organization of boys who have won at least one letter in a major school sport, either football, basketball, baseball, or track. The members of this club attempt to win the respect of their schoolmates by keeping sports on a high level. They try to develop among themselves and to instill in others the proper interpretation of school spirit.

History of Class of 1950

In September, 1946, we, a group of timid freshmen, entered the halls of the Chambersburg High School. We made our debut into the social activities by attending the Hallowe'en Party. Mrs. Janadell C. Rebok and Mr. Victor G. Foreman were chosen as our class advisers. We proved our acting ability by staging a clever talent show. We elected Richard Houser as president; Richard Smith, vice-president; Margaret Deardorff, secretary; Miriam Frank and Joseph Ericson, treasurers; and Nancy Burkholder, historian.

As sophomores our first big event was the Hallowe'en Party, for which we supplied the decorations. We looked forward eagerly to Color Day and worked diligently on a class theme, motto, cheer, and song. Several members of our class helped stage a very entertaining play, "Alice in Wonderland," as part of the Color Day program. Margaret Deardorff and Kathleen Schaffnit represented us in the Queen's Court. It was a proud moment for us when the president of the senior class presented our president, Richard Smith, with the red and white banner. Other officers of the year were Thomas Banfield, vice-president; Margaret Deardorff, secretary; Doris Frank and Ronald McCleary, treasurers; and Nancy Burkholder, historian.

"Aiming higher with all our might", we became juniors. Again we chose Richard Smith to lead our class. Richard Houser was vice-president; Margaret Deardorff, secretary; Doris Frank and John Martin, treasurers; and Patricia Hartman, historian. The main events of this year were the Junior Frolic, Color Day, and the Junior-Senior Reception. The Frolic as an "Under the Sea" dance was a huge success. Our class gift to the school was a light for the lectern. Representing us in the Queen's Court were Kathleen Schaffnit as Maid of Honor, and Peggy Deardorff and Barbara Fogelsanger. Formally attired couples danced in the artistically decorated gymnasium at the Prom, and everyone had a wonderful time.

Finally we reached the top flight of stairs and became seniors. Again we elected Richard Smith as president; Richard Houser, vice-president; Margaret Deardorff, secretary; Doris Frank and John Martin, treasurers; and Patricia Hartman, historian. Members of our class helped to make the football and basketball teams winning ones. Various money-making projects were carried on to help finance our trip to Washington. We look forward enthusiastically to our Commencement, "The History of Medicine," the Junior-Senior Reception, and our Washington trip.

Ballads

THE REDS

By ZANE HODGES

On yon midwestern plains there lies
A city known to all;
Full famed for many a thing it is,
But mostly for baseball.

True, Cincinnati's baseball teams
Have seen their better days,
But fans thereof will tell a tale
Unique in many ways.

A tale, forsooth, twould scare wee tykes
A snuggling in their beds;
Aye, many an older man doth quail
When told of Abner Pfedds.

The tale of Abner Pfedds runs thus:
'Twas on a balmy day,
A Cincinnati baseball team
Went out, a game to play.

Nine men went out onto the field,
Old Pfedds with all the rest;
And as a pitcher of the game,
Was classed with all the best.

But this was not old Abner's day,
He'd pitched a mite too long,
And as each inning did progress,
The game just went all wrong.

Boom! Boom! The bats did bang the ball,
Of putouts there were few;
This was by far the darkest day,
That Abner Pfedds e'er knew.

Arose within that giant frame
Of forty years or more,
A fervent passion stronger far
Than it had known before.

He rush-ed down from off the mound,
And with his spik-ed shoe,
He flail-ed at the other team,
And beat them black and blue.

The blood did flow as red as wine,
In truth, a terrible sight;
And on the honor of that field,
Indeed, twas quite a blight.

'Twas long ago this deed was done
By bloody Abner Pfedds;
But evermore his team was called
"The Cincinnati Reds."

FOGGY THOUGHTS IN THE MORNING

By RICHARD GABLER

When shrill alarum wakes me up
Before the dark has gone,
It seems that I just went to bed,
And now here comes the dawn.

That ghastly clatter splits my head
And makes my nerves all shrink.
I stretch and groan and twist and turn
And then begin to think.

The duties of the coming day
Rise up before my view;
A history test, a class in trig,
Poor soul, what can I do!

A home room program still to plan—
Horrors! What shall it be?
If someone else would work it out,
'Twould suit me to a T.

An English ballad yet to write—
The saints deliver me!
Poetic thoughts aren't in my line;
They rise right up and flee.

More work to do in chemistry—
I must get on the ball;
If I don't work a little more,
My marks are sure to fall!

Oh, how I wish this day were o'er,
With all its dreary chores,
I dread it like the crack of doom
And long for pleasant shores.

Will that shrill ringing never stop?
I guess I must roll out.
Another day of school is here—
I'm ready for the bout!

A STUDENT'S DEATH

By WILLIAM KELLY

Now John he was an able lad;
He worked hard at his books.
He slaved and strived to do his best,
But profs did this o'erlook.

Once he had strength and physique grand,
But now he's weak and wan.
Hundreds of tests his brain have dulled;
His life is all but gone.

When on his bed of death he lay,
All eyes with tears did fill.
As with his last short, gasping breath
He told us this, his will.

"To Mother dear I leave my shirt,
The sweat-stained one of white,
The one I used to wear when I Worked at my books all night.

"To Father dear my car I give,
The beat-out old jalop;
It used to carry me to school
Where worked I 'til I dropped.

"To Brother dear I leave my desk,
All scratched and stained and worn.
On it I did my teachers' work;
For them I have but scorn.

"To all my teachers dear I give
This thought before I'm gone,
'Next time you give such big lessons,
Please think of our poor John.'"

FEBRUARY 4—Proof reading—Ugh! ! And this is only the second time. Two down and three to go.

FEBRUARY 28—The Schlichter-men bring the total of South Penn Championships up to seven.

APRIL 5—Everyone is in a dither. Teachers are determined to teach that last chapter. Results—tests and more tests. Easter vacation begins. Four whole days of bliss.

APRIL 14—What a Color Day! The rafters ring with our songs and cheers. One sad, sentimental note—it can't happen for us anymore.

MAY 5—Gee! This year we really enjoy the Prom. No backaches from decorating.

MAY 12—Examinations become very important. Pass—Washington! Fail—Chambersburg!

MAY 18—Washington, we are here! "So much to be done and so little time."

MAY 29—Graduation—We take the final step of that last mile. Reluctantly we hand over the reins to the juniors. Adieu, C. H. S., remember the Class of '50.
